The Celebration Belle docked at the Winona Levee on July 4, 2004 as part of the Grand Excursion celebration which commemorated the original Grand Excursion of 1854 when a flotilla of five steamboats chugged north carrying a number of dignitaries such as former president Millard Fillmore to draw attention to the Mississippi River. (Top Right)

President Jimmy Carter, on board the Delta Queen, was vacationing on the Mississippi River with his family. On August 18, 1979, the paddleboat stopped in front of Levee Park to greet a throng of citizens. (Bottom Right)

Winona's Free Street Fair — First held on September 6, 1904 along E. 3rd St. in downtown Winona. Numerous attractions were available for the public to view. A highlight was the high wire performance of Herr Granada and Alma Fedora on a wire stretched between the Odd Fellows Block and the building occupied by Joseph Schlingerman. The pair was dressed as Topsy the elephant and together proceeded across the wire which was set at a dizzying height!
