Ben and Myrtle Huntley came to Winona for their son's education in the 1910s and brought along their early film making fun! Much of the surviving Huntley costume pieces are housed at the History Center and you can see Myrtle's lovely grape adorned dress on exhibit. A favorite is the "golden" breastplate Myrtle wore for a performance, but is rarely exhibited due to its fragile condition.

The Lewiston Baseball team is ready to play, c. 1950s. Baseball has a long history across Winona County. Lewiston was in the same league as the Winona Chiefs. Wallace "Rose" Joswick was considered the father of Winona baseball and in 1922 started, managed and played for the Winona Roses, a west-end team. This Rose team uniform was originally worn by Fred Schulz in early 1940s.
